LESSON I, SECOND QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES, APRIL 4.

Text of the Lesson, Acts ix, 32-43-Memory Verses, 32-35 Golden Text, Acts tx, Mt. Abraham 34-Commentary by the Rev. D. M.

82. "And it came to pass as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda." The last we heard of Peter he was with John preaching the word of the Lord as they returned from Samaria to Jerusalem, having witnessed the great work of the Lord through Philip in Samaria (chapter viii 25). In Jerusalem the number of disciples multiplied greatly, and a great company of the priests believed (chapter vi. 7). In all the land the churches had rest, and were being built up, and were multiplying, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost (chapter ix, 31).
Poter seems to be inherating a little and helping the saints here and there. Notice this name "saints," We are not called to be saints, but we are called saints (Rom. i, 7, omitting the italies; also I Cor. i, 2) by virtue of our oneness with Christ. Every believer is a saint.

B3. "And there his found a certain man named Emas, which had kept his bed eight years and was sick of the palsy." We would infer that Æms was one of the saints to whem Peter cance and finding him in this leipless condition be had com-passion upon him. Possibly Alms and others had been proving that the Lord would send some one that way through whom leads much come remembering Math with the How very sman serve of the utter helplessness of the stener is the condition of this paralytic value had been eight years build.

34. "And Peter said unto him, East, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole. Arise and make thy led. And he arose immediately." Peter was greatly used of the Lord in the healing of the body as well as of the soul. See chapters iii, 6, 7, v, 15, 16. It would seem that some were healed even by the shadow of Peter falling upon them. 85. "And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw Him, and turned to the Lord." of many turning to Rim. He does not heal all who are sick, but to this day He does, both with and without medicine, heal many who are sick. He knows whether it is best for us to abide here or be with Him at home, and whether, abiding here, it is best for us to be sick or well. The great thing is to glorify God that people may turn to Him (Phil. 1, 20; John xvii, 4); 36; "Now, there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by inter-pretation is called Dorcas. This woman she goes away. All who truly receive Christ are saved (John 1, 12). Disciples are those who live upon His word and fol-low Him fully at any cost (Luke xiv, 26, 27). Those who are both of these and also full of good works and kindness to the poor must come specially near to the heart of Christ, for He, being full of the Spirit, went about doing good and healing the op-37. but this is his first case of resurrection from the dead. Alone with the dead body, he poured our his soul to God, doubtlepleading the promises of God, the commission in Math. x, 8, the assurance of John xiv, 12, and withat asking in complete submission to the will of God (John xiv. 13. 14; I John v. 14, 15). He must have received some assurance that his request was granted, for he turned to the budy and said, for the insane. Tabitha, arise. And she sat up, looking

41. "And he maye her his hand and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and videous presented her alive." There are three resurred in the life of in the Ohi Testament, three in the life of Christ, and this is the first of three after His ascension (Acts xiv, 19, 20, xx, 12). We have no record of any utterances of those who had been dead and had been those who had been dead and had been brought back to this world. Paul says it brought back to this world. Paul says it was not possible for him to utter what he capital they now possess. There are three resurrenthans of the dead was not possible for him to utter what he heard in paradise ('I Cor. xii, 4), doubt-less when he was stoned to doubt at Lystra. 43. "And it was known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord." The resurrection of Lazarus led to many believing on Jesus (John xil, 11), and here is another case in which the Lord saw that a resurrection would be the means of leading many to Him. It does not seem as if Dorcas would have been sent from paradise back to earth without her consent. She may have been informed of the results that would follow, and for the sake of winning these souls to Christ and for Christ's sake she doubtless came back cheerfully for His pleasure. We do not know of any results from the resurrection of the many who rose when Christ did (Math. xxvii, 52, 53), but there was a reason for their resorrection, and no doubt the result which God Intended. I think they went with Christ to glory, while the nine previously referred to probably died
